NEWSLETTER 22/2017

Greetings! On this 25th anniversary of the founding of the World Puzzle Championship, I'd like to say स्वागत हे (welcome) to Bangalore!

Known variously as the Silicon Valley of India, the Science City of India, the Garden City of India, and the Birthplace of Hinduism, Bangalore has a fast-growing, tech-centric economy as well as a storied history and great natural beauty.*

Participants at the 1st World Puzzle Championship atop the former World Trade Center in New York City, June 1992

This year's WPC/WSC organizers, Logic Masters India (LMI), have been conducting national puzzle championships since 2008. Some of their members are counted among the best puzzle creators in the world, and their frequent online competitions attract a diverse international audience. This year's championship puzzles should be very good indeed.

Since last year's highly successful, record-breaking WPC/WSC in Senec, Slovakia, our longtime director, Hana Koudelkova, of the Czech Republic, has stepped down. The WPF board selected Prasanna Seshadri, of India, as the WPF's new director.

Starting in January, the WPF has again sponsored monthly online Grand Prix competitions for both grid-logic puzzles and sudoku. Nearly a thousand players from 56 countries took part. Thanks to Nikola Zivanovic, of Serbia, and Wei-Hwa Huang, of the USA, for directing these events and helping spread WPF culture around the world.

Now on to the competition! Happy solving, and good luck to everyone!

WSC & WPC 2016

By Matúš Demiger and Zuzana Hromcová

In the recent years, puzzling has gained a lot of fans in Slovakia. We organize several tournaments a year, and we encourage the newcomers to practise more by inviting them to our friendly training-camps. Lately, our puzzle community has grown and now has dozens of active solvers.

Therefore, it was only a matter of time when our ambitions would grow as well. As a lot of you remember, Slovakia already organized a World Sudoku Championship in 2009. Unfortunately, it was a rather experimental one, and therefore was not remembered as one of the best events. But this time, it ought to be different. A new generation of enthusiastic authors and organizers was ready to prove that Slovakia has a lot to offer.

We considered this idea since WSC & WPC 2012 in Croatia, and finally decided to propose our candidacy in London, 2014. Initially, there were four more countries considering hosting the championship but in the end, they all withdrew their offers. We were chosen to host the championships and the adventure began.

BEFORE THE EVENT

The two venue options – Senec and The High Tatras, had both their pros and cons, so choosing the venue was not easy.

The attitude and cooperation of the Senec representatives and the hotel management helped us decide. The scenic sunsets, pleasant hotel and smooth transport from Bratislava and Vienna also showed out to be more beneficial to our guests.

Along with us, the initial organizers were Ján Farkaš with Blanka Lehotská and as new responsibilities appeared, more and more people joined our team. Shortly, administrating the website, preparing the competition structure, creating puzzles, organizing the transports and excursion required engagement of almost a dozen of volunteers.

Having Martin Fundárek as an organizer was like winning a jackpot. We didn't know him before, but his systematic work and experience with public transportation relieved us from organizing the shuttle buses and excursion. We can hardly appreciate the contribution of Martina Prinerová, who sometimes considers herself as an average solver, but we quickly realized that creating new fresh Sudoku variants and testing even the hardest puzzles belonged to her strengths. She was also responsible for deploying the brand new online results table.

ORGANIZATION

Almost 50 organizers were involved in preparing the event and helping on site. The core of the organization team was made by stable Slovak representatives contestants, helped by friends and family members.

Before the championship, we divided responsibilities among ourselves. We found it important to let the participants know to who they should contact with their problems (e.g. queries, transportation, accommodation or other) but it was even more important for us to know what our roles were and what we should do.

While the competitors were solving undisturbed, there was a lot of things going on in the organizers' room. Two minutes prior the start of a round, they lined up and marched to the competition hall to get ready for a synchronized puzzle booklets handout. When the round has started, some of them stayed in the hall while the others hurried back to the backstage for marking the previous rounds. Ivana Ondrejková acted as an irreplaceable on-site manager of this process in the background, and we cannot be thankful enough to all the volunteers who followed her instructions.

Marking was done in two phases – one check was made by a less-experienced judge who possessed a green pen, while the other one was made by a more-experienced judge with a red pen.

In ambiguous situations or when inconsistencies occurred, the main judge Peter Hudák was always nearby to decide. In a few rounds, we were able to optimize this system and maximize the efficiency of the process.

Anytime a puzzle booklet was marked twice, it was processed with another group of people – IT crowd, who made sure the data were correctly written in all the results databases. Thanks to them, we had complete statistics on who solved exactly which puzzles.

We never went to bed before we marked all that day's rounds, printed and published the results.

PROPAGATION

We launched the championship website at the beginning of the year and experimented with launching championship Facebook and Twitter accounts as well. We wanted to keep the puzzle community updated about what we were working on and to show them some photos from the backstage.

We published all the puzzles from our national championships and occasionally added a countdown puzzle during the year (e.g. when there were 200 days to the championship, one month...). This was done to offer the constants the opportunity to practise solving Slovak puzzles and to remind them the championship was approaching. While our Twitter account has not been a big success, the Facebook and website has become a crucial means of communication with the participants. This was even more important during the championship, when we could publish photos and results immediately after they were prepared and receive feedback from the participants.

HOTEL

Breaking the record of highest number of participant was one of our goals so we decided not to restrict the hotel capacity. We were glad that friends from Slovenia and Latvia also took part, however accommodating all of the participants was a huge challenge. The unequal quality of the hotels was our failure. One of the hotels incomprehensibly cancelled all the reservations just week before the championship. Two other options were found immediately but we have to admit that their quality was just average.

On the other hand, cooperation with Hotel Senec was invaluable. They solved all the issues to perfection, including rearranging the competition hall layout several times a day and many others, and their great hotel underlined the whole event.

COMPETITION

Our dream came true and 213 Sudoku solvers together with 197 puzzlers became the highest number of participants ever. We appreciate that all of them agreed to our rules, were disciplined and respected our instructions.

As a reward, we offered them lightning fast checking and publishing the results, which was a chronic disease at some of the previous championships. This year it was our priority and we hope that next organizers will think about it in the same way.

The feedback was inconsistent when we asked competitors about the play-offs. The team, junior and senior play-offs were also held in Senec, not only the individual ones as usual. Those who took part had a great fun but the spectators were mainly bored because the live coverage was not present. However, we still believe that the finals offered a great show. Both leaders from the preliminary rounds lost their leading position and we could hardly breathe during the dramatic battle of Chinese juniors.

PUZZLES

There were seven different WSC authors in total. Most of the sudokus were made by Zuzana Hromcová, Martina Prinerová, Ivana Ondrejková and Matúš Demiger, few others were prepared by Blanka Lehotská, Micheala Bielíková and Matej Uher. Making the puzzles was mostly done by men, most of the grids were created by Matúš and Matej. Michal Forišek and Zuzana also prepared one nice round each, and Martina, Michaela, Ján Farkaš and Peter Hudák contributed as well.

Preparing such a huge number of puzzles was a responsible task. After a year, we can immodestly state that our puzzles were nice and diverse, with each round having its own theme and structure. We are especially happy for your reactions after the round of Sudoku Basics where basic puzzles posed as rather different variants. One of our most popular rounds was Gappy Classics, which was also liked by the participants but not by our volunteers who spent the whole Sunday draining the holes into the cardboard with a hammer and chisel.

We were really glad that none of the numerous puzzles was wrong. Only one pitchy arrow that disappeared from the team round worried us, but luckily each team has successfully dealt with this situation.

ENTERTAINMENT ACTIVITIES

We think that the championship be not only about stress and rivalry, but having fun and spending time with your friends from other countries as well. That's why we prepared various evening entertainment activities, which we lacked in the previous years.

Our guests had a great fun at the evening team Sudoku Quiz, ludicrous midnight Pyjama Contest and a live version of popular Croco League, which turned into a ridiculous chaos. We enjoyed it all as well!

Slovak president Andrej Kiska, who became the patron of the 11th WSC and 25th WPC, was not able to arrive for the Award Ceremony to honor the winners, so we decided to make this evening memorable in another way. We awarded a few more participants except the medallists. You have learned who had the most beautiful and ugliest handwriting, who repeatedly forgot his registration number and who correctly guessed the competitor finishing on the 11th place at the 11th WSC and who ranked 25th on the 25th WPC. We also got inspired by a famous Tour de France competition and awarded the Best Sprinter, a King of the Mountains, Best Junior and winner of the WSC Preliminary Rounds with T-shirts of the respective colors.

CONCLUSION

In conclusion, we can say that organizing a World Sudoku and Puzzle Championship has been a challenge, but it was an experience worth of all the efforts we put in.

We are very thankful to all the participants for providing us with positive energy during the championships, for their support and friendliness, and for all the messages we received after the event.

Goodbye, puzzle friends, and see you all in India!

OPEN GA MEETING PART 2 (THURSDAY EVENING)

CANDIDATES FOR THE WPF BOARD

This year there were five candidates for the two open positions on the Board. The candidates were Zhang Haijun (CHN), György István (HUN), Prasanna Seshadri (IND), Will Shortz (USA), Frédéric Stalder (SUI). All the candidates gave a short presentation (Markus Roth had a presentation on behalf of Frédéric Stalder who was not present) that included their experience, current job, and future plans within the WPF.

WSC/WPC 2017 INDIA

The presentation was given by Amit Sowani and Prasanna Seshadri. The championships will be held on October 15-22, 2017, in Hotel Clark's Exotica, in Bangalore. The event is scheduled to align with Diwali – one of the major Indian festivals, so it's recommended to book flights and plan the trip well in advance. The authors and organisers are Amit Sowani, Deb Mohanty, Prasanna Seshadri, Rakesh Rai, Rohan Rao and Sumit Bothra. The official participation fee for the combined championships will be 500/550 EUR.

CANDIDATE FOR HOSTING WSC/WPC 2018 – SAN MARINO

There is one candidate for hosting the WSC/WPC 2018 – San Marino. Stefano Forcolin presented a potential site for the venue – San Marino. As there were still some uncertain points, a deadline on February 15, 2017 was set to present the final candidacy. The main issues were high costs and associated shortening of the event by one day, limited number of possible accommodation options, the size of the competition hall, and transport from the airport.

VOTING SESSION (FRIDAY)

The Board members present were: Will Shortz (Chairman, USA), Hans Eendebak (Treasurer, NED), Vítězslav

Koudelka (CZE), György István (HUN), Gareth Moore (UK), and Hana Koudelková (Director, CZE). The countries present were: Bulgaria, China, Croatia, Czech Republic, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Hungary, India, Italy, Japan, Korea, Netherlands, Russia, Serbia, Switzerland (voting for Poland), Turkey, UK, USA.

ELECTION OF THE BOARD MEMBERS

In the first ballot, Prasanna Seshadri and Will Shortz got the most votes and out of these two Prasanna was elected as the first new board member. The remaining four candidates advanced to the second ballot. In this round, György and Will got most of the votes and later Will was elected as the second new board member. Hence the new board members are Prasanna Seshadri and Will Shortz. Vita thanked all the candidates and expressed confidence in future cooperation.

CLOSING

Will thanked Matus Demiger and Zuzana Hromcová for hosting the WSC/WPC 2016, Hana Koudelková for several years as the WPF Director, and Wei-Hwa Huang and Tom Collyer for running the WPF Sudoku/Puzzle GP. There being no further business, the meeting was closed on Friday October 21.

BOARD MEETING (WEDNESDAY)

The meeting was called to order on Wednesday at 9 p.m. and the Board members present were: Will Shortz (Chairman, USA), Hans Eendebak (NED), Chen Cen (CHN), Vítězslav Koudelka (CZE), György István (HUN), Gareth Moore (UK), and Hana Koudelková (Director, CZE).

The Board went through the GA agenda and discussed all the topics. There was a discussion about the number of board members for the future. The board agreed the number shouldn't be higher. György suggested to have two leaderships – active board and presidential (representative) board. Vita, Hans and Will were against. There was no vote about it.

Board's activity during the year György suggested to have all the details about the WPF board's decisions over the year available on the WPF web page. Vítězslav added that there should be a page dedicated to the board's activity over the year in the Newsletter, too. System of voting The Board discussed the voting of the Board members and agreed that there would be two separate elections for two positions.

The system of voting will be followed as described in the WPF Statutes. The Board also confirmed that each presentation of the candidates can last 2 minutes and the presentation will be done during the Open GA Meeting.

BOARD MEETING (FRIDAY)

The Board Meeting took place on Friday evening. Prasanna was welcomed as a new Board member and the system of Board's job over the year was explained.

The first point was to select the officers – the chairman, treasurer and the competition director.

Will Shortz was re-elected as the WPF chairman, Hans Eendebak as treasurer and Gareth Moore as the Competition director for 2017. Prasanna proposed some new ideas in terms of communication with players and authors and about puzzles in general and he was given a new title of Puzzle Communications.

The 5th WPF online Sudoku Grand Prix and the 4th WPF online Puzzle Grand Prix were held from January 2017 to August 2017. Authors from the following countries prepared sets of first class puzzles: Turkey, Serbia, Switzerland, Russia, Japan, Bulgaria, India, Germany, Slovakia, Czech Republic and UK. The events were capably handled by Sudoku GP Director Nikola Zivanovic (SRB) and Puzzle GP Director Wei-Hwa Huang (USA). There were 8 Sudoku rounds and 7 official Puzzle rounds.

The Sudoku Grand Prix saw a great mix as usual, with Classic Sudoku being well represented along with known variants, and some interesting new innovations. The Puzzle Grand Prix established a division based format catering to solvers at different levels of expertise. The three divisions, expert solvers of A, experienced second tier solvers of B and newcomers of C, added a proper base for growth by participating in the Puzzle GP with regularity.

At the end of the Grand Prix, the Top 10 Sudoku GP solvers and Top 10 Puzzle GP solvers with the highest cumulative scores will be contesting playoffs live in Bangalore during the 2017 World Sudoku & Puzzle Championship week.

Nikola Zivanovic (Sudoku GP Director): People often say that good things should not be changed. Sudoku GP 2017 year confirms this thought. For the past five years Sudoku GP has become the world's leading Internet Sudoku competition. I am here to continue these good things and if the competitors believe that it is necessary, to improve our tournament.

HALAS

CZECH ASSOCIATION OF SUDOKU AND PUZZLE PLAYERS (2013-2017)

INTRODUCTION

The history of Czech Sudoku and Puzzle activities from early 1990's including WPC 1993, WPC 2001 and WSC 2007 was described in WPF Newsletter 2013 in an article celebrating the 25th anniversary of our first puzzle competitions. Here is a short update on our activities in the next few years, as a lead-up to invite all of you, fellow puzzlers, to the WSC & WPC 2018 in Prague.

ACTIVITIES ON FED SUDOKU

The existing National puzzling activities are still going on, of course. It is mostly the online activities which can be noticed internationally. Some of you may be taking part in online leagues at www.fed-sudoku.eu. It is an initiative of few individual authors and administrators rather than an activity of the national federation, but you can meet most of the Czech WSC players there and a lot of their international rivals solving Classic Sudoku in a daily league, Classic Sudoku variants in a weekly league and some less usual variants on every alternate day as part of Krtek's Cup. If you haven't already, it may be a wise idea to join, knowing that Jan Krtek Novotny is the leading author of WSC 2018... ;-)

WPF GP CONTRIBUTIONS

There is typically at least one Sudoku or Puzzle round in the online GP by the WPF which is authored by different Czech puzzle-makers. At the same time, Czech players are amongst the most active nations in terms of participation during the GP season.

ON-SITE EVENTS

Only the rare guests from central Europe, mostly from Slovakia, know that we have 5 on-site tournaments during every year. The Czech Sudoku Championship started in 2006, and in the last few years, it has taken place in Brno, in September. The Czech Puzzle Championship started much earlier, and in the last few years, it has taken place in Prague, in May or June. These competitions usually consist of an individual competition, a team competition and a small Puzzle or Sudoku intermezzo.

Three more tournaments complete a yearly HALAS league: a tournament in Poděbrady town in spring time with a popular team competition, an academic championship in November at Brno University of Technology and a Christmas tournament in December in Prague with a decoration of HALAS league winners, the national association's general assembly and an after-party.

Czech Sudoku Championship

International guests are generally welcomed at all the tournaments. You can follow our webpage (<http://sudokualogika.cz/>) or Facebook (<https://www.facebook.com/groups/sudokualogika/>) and use a translator from Czech language or you can contact any friend you know in the Czech Republic and ask for more details about the schedule, etc. If you do not know someone in the Czech Republic, you may refer to member details at the end of this newsletter to get some contact information for prominent figures in HALAS.

THE JUNIOR SCENE

2011 onwards, we have also organized several competitions for students every year. This year (2017) we had a full cycle of these competitions for the first time, with 5 regional rounds followed by a national final for the best 15 teams from basic schools and 15 teams from secondary schools. Unfortunately, it is just Veronika Macků, Czech junior champion, who is regularly attending the competition for adults too – including WSC, with a great result of 6th place in the U-18 rankings and 4th place in the team competition last year. We hope that more talents will be activated in the upcoming year who can be invited as guest participants for WSC 2018.

National Finals of the Competition for Student Teams

WSC-WPC 2018

In October 2016, after the presentation from the Italian team about a potential WSC&WPC in San Marino.

This eventually did not materialize, a few people started to think about organizing the 2018 Championship in the Czech Republic. The idea was thoroughly discussed during the general assembly in December 2016 and supported by the board of the national association in February 2017. Preparations started right away while we were approved by the members and board of WPF during the spring of 2017.

We can invite you at the moment to Prague in early November 2018 for a

CRYPTARITHM

Replace letters by digits to get a valid set of mathematical equations. Different letters correspond to different digits while the same letters correspond to the same digits. Numbers must not start with a zero. The actual puzzle uses all ten digits (0-9).

ABC DIVISION

Divide the grid along the given lines into regions so that each region contains each letter from the given word (in example the word is AABC). Each cell of the grid must belong to exactly one region.

ABC Division (Matus) - Classic puzzle with Senec theme, Reminder of the "anniversary" round

INFECTION

Place numbers from 1 to 4 into empty cells. All cells with numbers must be orthogonally connected. A number in a cell indicates how many orthogonally adjacent cells contain a number. Same numbers cannot share an edge..

Infection (Matej) - almost forgotten type, using a 1-3 combination, reminder of the second "anniversary" round

ARROWS

Place exactly one arrow into each of the cells outside the grid. Numbers inside the grid indicate how many arrows point to the cell in the grid. An empty cell inside the grid means that the number of arrows pointing at it is unknown. Each arrow has to point at at least one gridcell in one of the given eight directions

Arrows (Matej) - One of the classics, almost empty puzzle with a pleasant solving flow

CLIMBERS

Mark the paths of all climbers through the hill. Each climber starts his climb from the bottom of the hill, so the number of climbers equals to the number of cells in the bottom row. Each climber ends his climb in different height. The path of each climber must lead only through neighboring cells. A climber can never visit two cells containing the same letters. Every cell of the hill must be visited exactly once.

Climbers (Peter) - Puzzle type I found at some old Finnish national championship and really enjoyed it... Peter prepared one for the finals and includes words like WPC, Senec, Slovakia, Bratislava

BATTENBURG SUDOKU

Fill in the whole grid with numbers from 1 to 9 so that no digit is repeated within a row, a column or an outlined 3x3 square. Battenburg marking at the intersection of four adjacent cells indicates that there are exactly 2 even and 2 odd numbers placed in the adjacent cells which form a 2x2 checkerboard pattern. All such places have been marked.

Battenburg (Zuzana) - Great symmetric puzzle with few marks and require using the negative condition

PALINDROME SUDOKU

Fill in the whole grid with numbers from 1 to 9 so that no digit is repeated within a row, a column or an outlined 3x3 square. There are some lines marked in the grid. All of them are palindromes, i.e. the sequence of the numbers placed in the cells along the line is identical when read from either direction of the line.
